Independent Living

For senior adults looking to maintain an active lifestyle without the hassle of home maintenance, Buckner Westminster Place offers one and two-bedroom apartments and patio homes with just the right amount of quiet privacy and social activity. Here, you have the option to choose whatever lifestyle suits you.

Each of our private residences gives you easy access to community amenities, programs and activities. Whether you prefer a night on the town or a movie and popcorn, working up a sweat or reading a book in the bistro, we've got a place here for you.

Assisted Living

For senior adults who may need additional assistance or support with daily activities, Buckner Westminster provides private one-bedroom suites with access to all the activities, services and amenities that our community has to offer.

As an assisted living resident, you will have the peace of mind that your needs will always be met—whether that be medication management, outpatient therapy, or help with daily activities. Most assisted living residents maintain an active lifestyle through regular community activities and outings.

Memory Care

When memory impairment becomes a concern for daily living, Buckner Westminster Place provides compassionate support at The Harbor, our certified memory care community. Employees and care professionals here provide services for varying levels of cognition—including Alzheimer's and dementia—using a holistic, faith-based approach that encourages members to connect with their past and enjoy the present.

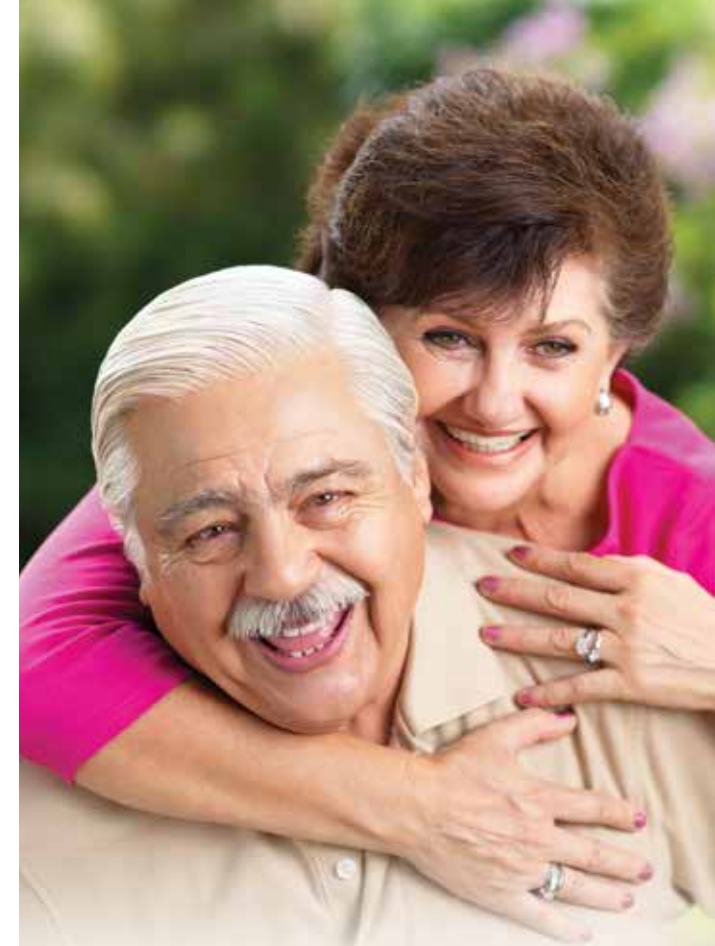

Skilled and Long-Term Nursing

When a loved one's care requires around-the-clock nursing supervision, Buckner Westminster Place provides a personalized, compassionate, care approach at The Cottages. Nursing stays are also available here for short-term rehab needs, such as after a surgery or injury. Our patient-centered, effective and thorough treatment process has earned national recognition as One of the Best Nursing Homes by U.S. News & World Report.

Our Invitation

In choosing to make your home with us, you're choosing Christ-like compassion, more than 20 years of expertise and a community that inspires happiness every day. Time to begin the best years of your life. Welcome to Buckner Westminster Place.
